Intro

Spent four years at Truckee, Tahoe. The most beautiful area of California.

Truckee is at 5,500 feet elevation, the lake was a little higher and we ice skated at the top of Squaw Valley at 8,200 feet.

I went on about half of the hiking trails in the area, each one was different in terrain, such a rich biosphere.

This volume is a quick taste of Tahoe...

Tahoe rivers fed by snow melt were always full.

One of my favorite lakes at the North end of Tahoe.

Tahoe in all her
grandeur, the waters
vivid varied blues.

One of my favorite types of shots, directly into the sun to create a shadow effect.

can use ar’ toilet, it’s out back yonder!”

This was my 'thinking' spot, any troubles I'd walk over to it and listen to the water for hours.

Basically crossed the street and a hundred feet into the woods and it was like leaving civilization behind.

Prologue

This is just a brief taste of Tahoe, if it hadn't been for a personal matter I would still be there and loving it.
